

Grief & Recovery

Support Group

Hope for every journey

Are you coping with the loss of a loved one to cancer?

Find connection. Healing. Support.

Join the Cancer Foundation for New Mexico for a support group designed for caregivers, family, and friends who have lost a loved one to cancer. There is no expiration date on grieving because the process changes and evolves over time.

- Share your experience in a safe and compassionate space
- Learn coping strategies for navigating grief
- Find support and understanding from others on similar journeys

Weekly Sessions

Every Thursday from 11:00 AM - 12:30 PM

Location

The group meets in person at the Foundation offices:

2009 Botolph Road, Suite 100, Santa Fe, NM 87505.

Remote participation available via Zoom.

Facilitated by Ronni Levine, LMFT

Together, we make a difference.

The mission of the Cancer Foundation for New Mexico is to help save lives by removing barriers and providing needed support to Northern New Mexicans with cancer seeking medical treatment in Santa Fe.

For more information or to register please contact:

Caroline Owen
(505) 955-7931 x 403
SupportGroups@cffnm.org

CFFNM.ORG