Free Cancer Support Groups

Do you have questions about your cancer diagnosis or treatment? Do you have a loved one with cancer? Are you a caregiver? All groups are offered at no cost to participants and are led by an experienced, licensed facilitator.

Questions? Please call (505) 955-7931 x. 3 or email caroline@cffnm.org

Santa Fe

The following groups are held in the Cancer Foundation offices next to the Double Dragon Restaurant at: 3005 S. St. Francis Dr., Suite 3-B in Santa Fe.

How We Heal: For those Who Have Received a Cancer Diagnosis

Meets on the first Wednesday of the month from 1:00 - 2:30pm.

This group is open to all people who have received a cancer diagnosis and includes tips on how to navigate and be supported by the system.

Living With Cancer

Meets on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of the month from 1:00 - 2:30pm.

Patients with recurrent or metastatic cancer can share their emotional and practical concerns in a confidential and empathetic environment. This group addresses the concept of living well with a chronic illness as well as the associated grief, loss and fears.

Together: A Support Group for Caregivers, Family, and Friends of Cancer Patients

Meets every Tuesday from 11:00am-12:15pm.

This group address the unique needs of the caregiver and those close to the cancer patient. It also provides an opportunity to share experiences, feelings, and knowledge and perhaps discover ways to heal and find hope in a compassionate, non-judgmental setting.

Los Alamos

The following groups are held in the Betty Ehart Senior Center Conference Room at: 1101 Bathtub Row in Los Alamos.

Together: A Support Group for Caregivers, Family, and Friends of Cancer Patients

Meets on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday from 11:00am-12:15pm.

This group address the unique needs of the caregiver and those close to the cancer patient. It also provides an opportunity to share experiences, feelings, and knowledge and perhaps discover ways to heal and find hope in a compassionate, non-judgmental setting.

About the Cancer Foundation for New Mexico

Our mission is to help save lives by providing the needed support to enable every northern New Mexican with cancer to access treatment in Santa Fe. The Cancer Foundation for New Mexico provides non-medical support services to help qualified cancer patients in active treatment and their families. For more information, please visit www.cffnm.org.
